GLOBAL POLICY DIGEST

MANAGE YOUR GLOBAL INSURANCE PROGRAM

THE CHALLENGE:

Multinational risk managers are responsible for the placement of compliant global insurance programs. However, with policies being issued in different languages from many insurers to local subsidiaries according to varying local and rules, monitoring activity is a challenge.

- Can you quickly access any local policy?
- Do you have a professionally prepared summary that outlines key aspects of coverage?
- Can you quickly analyze your program such as your total cost of controlled master and locally placed coverages by country and coverage line?

THE SOLUTION:

GLOBAL POLICY DIGEST

Global Policy Digest (GPD) is a convenient online database that consolidates global policy information, including controlled master programs, underlying and locally placed policies. Marsh professionals in local servicing offices add relevant documentation and prepare a consistent summary for each policy, enabling risk managers to quickly access the information they need.

Global Policy Digest

WHO IT'S FOR

- Multinational Organizations
- Clients who want an organized database of policies, summaries, and reports

FEATURES

- Policy Summaries: Local Marsh Servicing office professionals create an English language summary for each policy, which tracks key information in a consistent way for easy consumption and powerful reporting. Information captured includes:
 - Key details like term, country, currency, servicing office, admitted status, cancellation part of a master program or local placement.
 - Lines of coverage, insureds and insurers, limits and deductibles.
 - Key coverage extensions, enhancements, jurisdiction and territory.
 - Policy costs, premium, fees, taxes, and Marsh's compensation.

- Policy Documentation: Each policy record contains the issued policy, endorsements, as well as key supporting records such as binders and invoices as needed.
- Searchable Views: The database can be easily searched, filtered, or ordered by a wide variety of criteria to make it easy to find policies.
- Powerful Reports: Reports can be generated as needed in Excel or PDF formats, including conversion of local currency to any chosen global target for comparison and totals.
- Flexible Access: Security can be customized to allow global access for the central Risk Management team, while limiting local affiliate contacts to access only their local data and master program details.
- Historical Policies: Expired policies remain accessible, allowing you to monitor historical trends.
