

SECURE YOUR REPUTATION

As an investment professional you are exposed to an array of management and professional liabilities, any of which could significantly damage your reputation, bottom line, and future business. With Marsh's Investment Managers Insurance (IMI) solution you have access to broad policy wording, competitive pricing, and simple, quick administration.

You owe duties to shareholders, investors, employees and third parties, such as regulators. Any or all of these parties may make a variety of claims alleging:

- Trading errors.
- Breaches of investment mandates.
- Inappropriate asset allocation, investment advice, or product design.
- Failure to perform due diligence.
- Inadequate disclosure in offer documents and reporting.
- Errors in unit pricing or calculating returns.

You may also be faced with fee disputes or regulatory investigations.

Without adequate insurance, any of these claims could jeopardize your reputation, or even your business continuity. You could be personally liable for the expense of putting a third party back in the position they had been in prior to any proven error or omission.
